

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

ROBERT J.,

Plaintiff,

v.

COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant.

DECISION AND ORDER

1:18-CV-00458 EAW

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Robert J. (“Plaintiff”) moves for attorney’s fees in the amount of $28,170.00 pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b). (Dkt. 26). The Commissioner of Social Security (“the Commissioner”) does not specifically object to the amount that Plaintiff seeks. (Dkt. 27). On February 15, 2022, the Commissioner filed a supplemental response. (Dkt. 28). Plaintiff filed a reply to the Commissioner’s supplemental response on February 16, 2021. (Dkt. 29). For the reasons discussed below, the Court grants Plaintiff’s motion.

BACKGROUND

On April 17, 2018, Plaintiff filed this action, seeking review of the Commissioner’s final decision denying his application for Disability Insurance Benefits and Supplemental Security Income. (Dkt. 1). Plaintiff moved for judgment on the pleadings on December 10, 2018. (Dkt. 10). The Commissioner submitted a response and cross motion for judgment on the pleadings on March 29, 2019. (Dkt. 16). Plaintiff submitted a reply to the Commissioner’s response and cross motion on April 19, 2019. (Dkt. 17). This matter was assigned to the undersigned on July 10, 2019. (Dkt. 18). On August 23, 2020, the Court granted Plaintiff's motion for judgment on the pleadings to the extent that it remanded the matter to the Commissioner for further administrative proceedings. (Dkt. 19).

By Stipulated Order entered February 3, 2020, the Court approved payment to Plaintiff's counsel of $7,350.00 for services performed in connection with this action, pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d) ("EAJA"). (Dkt. 25).

Thereafter, the Commissioner issued a fully favorable notice of award on October 11, 2021, in connection with Plaintiff's claims (Dkt. 26-3), and a subsequent letter indicates that $28,170.00 was withheld to pay Plaintiff's representative, which is not greater than 25 percent of Plaintiff's past due benefits. (See Dkt. 26-4 at 3).

On October 18, 2021, Plaintiff timely moved for attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b). (Dkt. 26; see Dkt. 27 at 3). The Commissioner filed a response, indicating that the Commissioner does not specifically object to the amount of Plaintiff's counsel's fee request. (See generally Dkt. 27). On February 15, 2022, the Commissioner filed a supplemental response addressing the Second Circuit's decision in Fields v. Kijazaki, 24 F.4th 845 (2d Cir. 2022), which set forth four factors district courts should consider when awarding attorney's fees. (Dkt. 28). On February 16, 2022, Plaintiff filed a reply to Plaintiff's supplemental response. (Dkt. 29).

DISCUSSION

Section 406(b) provides, in relevant part, as follows:

Whenever a court renders a judgment favorable to a claimant under this subchapter who was represented before the court by an attorney, the court may determine and allow as part of its judgment a reasonable fee for such representation, not in excess of 25 percent of the total of the past-due benefits to which the claimant is entitled by reason of such judgment. . . .

42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1)(A). In other words, § 406(b) allows a successful claimant's attorney to seek court approval of his or her fees, not to exceed 25 percent of the total past-due benefits. Section 406(b) "calls for court review of [contingent-fee] arrangements as an independent check, to assure that they yield reasonable results in particular cases." Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 807 (2002). This review is subject to "one boundary line: Agreements are unenforceable to the extent that they provide for fees exceeding 25 percent of the past-due benefits." Id. (citing § 406(b)). "Within the 25 percent boundary, . . . the attorney for the successful claimant must show that the fee sought is reasonable for the services rendered." Id.

Accordingly, a fee is not automatically recoverable simply because it is equal to or less than 25 percent of the client's total past-due benefits. "To the contrary, because section 406(b) requires an affirmative judicial finding that the fee allowed is 'reasonable,' the attorney bears the burden of persuasion that the statutory requirement has been satisfied." Id. at 807 n.17. As such, the Commissioner's failure to oppose the motion is not dispositive. Mix v. Comm'r of Soc. Sec., No. 6:14-CV-06219 (MAT), 2017 WL 2222247, at *2 (W.D.N.Y. May 22, 2017). Several factors are relevant to the reasonableness analysis, including the following: (1) "whether the contingency percentage is within the 25% cap[;]" (2) "whether there has been fraud or overreaching in making the agreement[;]" and (3) "whether the requested amount is so large as to be a windfall to the attorney." Wells v. Sullivan, 907 F.2d 367, 372 (2d Cir. 1990). Also relevant are the following: (1) "the character of the representation and the results the representative achieved[;]" (2) "the amount of time counsel spent on the case[;]” (3) whether “the attorney is responsible for delay[;]” and (4) “the lawyer’s normal hourly billing charge for noncontingent-fee cases.” Gisbrecht, 535 U.S. at 808.

When determining whether a fee award constitutes a windfall, which would render a § 406(b) fee award unreasonable, the Court considers: (1) “the ability and expertise of the lawyers and whether they were particularly efficient,” (2) “the nature and length of the professional relationship with the claimant[;]” (3) “the satisfaction of the disabled claimant[;]” and (4) “how uncertain it was that the case would result in an award of benefits and the effort it took to achieve that result.” Fields, 24 F.4th at 854-55.

Here, the requested fee of $28,170.00 represents the amount withheld by the Social Security Administration, which the Commissioner notes is not greater than 25 percent of the statutory cap. (See Dkt. 26-4 at 3; Dkt. 27 at 5). Plaintiff states the amount of total expected past-due benefits is $112,680.00 (see Dkt. 26-1 at ¶ 5), and the Commissioner does not contest this amount. (See generally Dkt. 27). There is no evidence of fraud or overreaching in the making of the contingency agreement between counsel and Plaintiff. (See Dkt. 27 at 5). Counsel provided effective representation. The hours expended by counsel on the case were reasonable in light of the issues presented. The Court recognizes that Plaintiff’s counsel achieved particularly good results for Plaintiff, prevailing on a contested motion for judgment on the pleadings.

In this matter, the requested fee would result in a de facto hourly rate of $729.79 ($28,170.00 divided by 38.6 hours). (See Dkt. 26-1 at ¶ 9). This rate is more than double counsel’s usual hourly rate of $300.00 per hour. (See Dkt. 26-1 at ¶ 8). Although courts in this circuit have held that de facto hourly rates above $500 per hour are unreasonable, Morris v. Saul, 17-CV-259 (PKC), 2019 WL 2619334, at *3 (E.D.N.Y. June 26, 2019) (collecting cases), courts have found to be reasonable rates in excess of the rate counsel seeks in this matter—especially where plaintiffs have prevailed on motions for judgment on the pleadings, see, e.g., Jennifer W. v. Saul, 18-CV-493F, 2021 WL 1624288, at *3 (W.D.N.Y. Apr. 27, 2021) (approving an effective hourly rate of $812.75 where plaintiff prevailed on motion for judgment on the pleadings). See also Douglas M. v. Saul, 17-CV-1187F, 2021 WL 1298491, at *3 (W.D.N.Y. Apr. 6, 2021) (approving an effective hourly rate of $841.87 where plaintiff prevailed on motion for judgment on the pleadings); Lucia M. v. Saul, 15-CV-270F, 2021 WL 1298489, at *4 (W.D.N.Y. Apr. 6, 2021) (approving an effective hourly rate of $906.76).

Plaintiff's counsel is particularly experienced in the area of Social Security appeals, having practiced as an attorney in the areas of Social Security Disability Insurance and Supplemental Security Income claims since 1988 and having worked as a Social Security disability analyst for three years and as a Social Security claims representative for two years before practicing law. (Dkt. 26-1 at ¶ 7; Dkt. 29 at 1-2). Plaintiff's counsel has represented Plaintiff in this matter since 2017 and has assisted Plaintiff in expediting payment of benefits to Plaintiff's children in light the favorable hearing decision. (Dkt. 29 at 2). Additionally, Plaintiff obtained a fully favorable award after twice appealing from Social Security Appeals Council decisions and prevailing on a contested motion for judgment on the pleadings in the instant action. (Id.). Given the Commissioner's previous denials of Plaintiff's claims, achieving a favorable determination on Plaintiff's behalf was not assured. Accordingly, Plaintiff's counsel has not benefited from the "unearned advantage" of immediate success with minimal effort that the Second Circuit has cautioned would tend to indicate an impermissible windfall. Fields, 24 F.4th at 856.

Having considered the required factors, the reasoning in the foregoing cases, and the arguments set forth by counsel, the Court concludes that counsel's effective hourly rate of $729.79 per hour is in line with awards generally approved in this District for similar work performed. Furthermore, the Court is "mindful that 'payment for an attorney in a social security case is inevitability uncertain.'" Buckley v. Berryhill, 15-CV-0341-A, 2018 WL 3368434, at *2 (W.D.N.Y. July 10, 2018) (quoting Wells, 907 F.2d at 371). Accordingly "the Second Circuit has recognized that contingency risks are necessary factors in determining reasonable fees under § 406(b)." Id. (quotation marks omitted).

The Court also notes that counsel is required to return the previously awarded EAJA fee. See Gisbrecht, 535 U.S. at 796 ("Fee awards may be made under both [EAJA and § 406(b)], but the claimant's attorney must refund to the claimant the amount of the smaller fee. . . ."). The parties stipulated to the amount of $7,350.00, which counsel understands he must refund to Plaintiff. (Dkt. 26-1 at ¶ 10b).

In light of the above, the Court finds the requested fee of $28,170.00 to be reasonable.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff's § 406(b) motion for attorney's fees (Dkt. 26) is granted, and the Court hereby orders as follows: (1) Plaintiff's counsel shall be paid attorney's fees in the amount of $28,170.00, out of funds withheld from Plaintiff's pastdue benefits; and (2) Plaintiff's counsel is hereby directed to refund the previously awarded EAJA fee of $7,350.00 to Plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.
